The following conditions are intended to the request for transfer of a prisoner to the Landesgericht über Straf-sachen Wien.

a) In the event of acquittal the prisoner will not be released until the American authorities concerned have been notified of the acquittal and have indicated whether or not the prisoner is to be returned to U.S. control.

b) If the event conviction is obtained and imprisonment imposed by the Austrian court, the Austrian court will notify the American authorities concerned of the sentence and will not release the internec upon the expiration of the sentence without ascertaining whether not the American authorities desire the prisoner returned to U.S. custody.

c) In any case where the American authorities deem a sentence imposed by the Austrian court inadequate, or desire, for any other reason, to gain custody of the prisoner, the internec will be surrendered promptly.

d) The Austrian court guarantees the safekeeping of all political prisoners released to its custody by the American authorities and will provide the safe transportation for transferring said prisoners from camp "Karcus Orr" to the session hall and return.

SUBJECT: ZEISCHL, Victor, AIC 507

TO: Command S. C-24 Third United States Army, AIC 403

1. Background: ZEISCHL was arrested at BADEN by AUSSEINVESTIGATOREN Detachment 90 Infantry Division on 13 May 1945. because he was a member of the SD. He arrived at Third US Army Intelligence Center on 17 July 1945.

2. Summary: ZEISCHL is a 37 year old man, 5' 7 1/2", blue eyes, brown hair, short dark hair, light complexion, German Austrian and SS. He was born in Vienna, Austria. He was a policeman in WIEN.
In 1935 he was discharged from police force because of his Nazification. In 1938 he served in the Austrian Legion and in 1939 he became RSHA. In 1940 he attended a course in the Reichssicherheitshauptamt. In 1941 he graduated as Kriminalkommissar.
From 1938 to 1944 he worked in the RSHA. In 1942 he was in charge of the intelligence section and the personnel department. In 1942 he rejoined the RSHA. In 1943 he was transferred to Ammt VI Ministry of Propaganda. In June 1944 he was transferred to Ammt VI S (South East), for which office he dealt with the representatives of the exiled governments of Bulgaria, Rumania, and Croatia.

3. Disposition: ZEISCHL is a Hauptsturmführer in the Allgemeine SS and a member of the RSHA, which places him in the automatically held detention category. He is to be evacuated to civilian internment and closure.
